

◆◆# Design report

Tic-Tac-Toe

Tic-Tac-Toe is composed of many functions. Each function follows the single responsibility principle. The application is split in three parts. Game logic, web interface and web logic. The game logic is the main part running the game and keeping track of whos turn it is, what part of the game board has been filled in and who won. The web interface is how the game board will look and the web logic handles players actions.